

Rotary Club of Clayton's History

The Rotary Club of Clayton, sponsored by the Gainesville, Georgia Rotary Club, was officially chartered in November 1948. The membership has been very active at the local level and at the Rotary District 6910 level. The club meets at noon on Thursdays at the Food Bank.

Today's Clayton Rotary Club continues to carry on the club's founding tradition of supporting local and international efforts.

For additional information see the club's website www.claytonrotary.com.